PREFACE

The Ninth Decennial Census of Canada was taken as of June 1, 1951. Volume I is the first of eleven volumes giving the final results of this census and deals specifically with general population statistics.

The tables show population totals down to the smallest geographical areas as well as various classifications of the population for specified county and municipal divisions by such basic characteristics as sex, age, marital status, origin, religious denomination, birthplace, citizenship, period of immigration, mother tongue and years of schooling. In addition, Volume I includes a number of historical tables which give population statistics back to 1871, the year of the first census after Confederation.

Preceding the tabular section of this volume there is a short Introduction which includes various definitions and explanations of census terms used throughout the tables. A set of reference maps for use as a guide to locations of the geographical areas shown in the tables appears in Appendix A. An index of place names to facilitate reference to given locations is shown in Appendix E.

The materials for this volume were prepared in the Population Section of the Census Division.

PRÉFACE

Le neuvième recensement décennal du Canada a été effectué le 1er juin 1951. Le volume I est le premier d'une série de onze volumes, qui donnent les résultats définitifs de ce recensement. Il traite spécifiquement de la statistique générale de la population.

Les tableaux donnent les chiffres de la population jusque dans les plus petites régions géographiques, de même que diverses classifications de la population dans certaines divisions de comté et de municipalité selon des caractéristiques fondamentales telles que le sexe, l'âge, l'état matrimonial, l'origine, la dénomination religieuse, le lieu de naissance, la citoyenneté, la période d'immigration, la langue maternelle et les années d'école. Le volume I contient en outre un certain nombre de tableaux chronologiques qui donnent les chiffres de la population en remontant jusqu'à 1871, année du premier recensement après la confédération.

La section du présent volume qui contient les tableaux est précédée d'une courte introduction dans laquelle on trouvera diverses définitions et explications des termes de recensement employés dans les tableaux. L'appendice A contient une série de cartes de référence qui aidera à localiser les régions géographiques indiquées dans les tableaux. L'appendice E est un index des noms d'endroits qui facilitera la référence aux localités indiquées.

La matière du présent volume a été préparée à la Section de la population de la Division du recensement.

General principles of census enumeration

Since the legal purpose of the census in Canada is to determine parliamentary representation, the Statistics Act provides that the census be taken by what is known as the de jure method. This means that each person is enumerated as belonging to the locality of his regular domicile rather than the place where he may be at the date of the census. (In the 1951 Census the precise hour of reckoning was midnight on the night of May 31 to June 1. Everyone born before that hour and everyone dying after it was counted in the population.) The complications involved in taking a census under the de jure method necessitate the provision of precise working rules to assist the enumerator in determining whom to include in the census and where to enumerate each person. The entire population was classified for census purposes into the following groups:

Group A — Persons enumerated and included with the population of the household.

(i) persons whose usual place of residence was in the dwelling and who were living at home (including infants born before midnight May 31st).

(ii) persons whose usual place of residence was in the dwelling, but who were temporarily away from home visiting, travelling on business, attending school or university, or at a military camp as a member of the Reserve Forces.

(iii) persons whose usual place of residence was in the dwelling, but who had been admitted to a hospital where the period of treatment is of short duration.

(iv) lodgers who slept regularly in the dwelling (except student lodgers who had a usual place of residence elsewhere).

(v) servants and other employees who slept regularly in the dwelling.

(vi) deceased persons who were alive on the census date and whose usual place of residence was in the dwelling.

Group B — Persons enumerated but not included with the household. (Documents in this category were assigned through an office processing procedure to the household of the person's permanent residence.)

(i) visitors to the household (or guests of the household) who had a usual place of residence elsewhere in Canada, but did not expect to be enumerated there.

(ii) student lodgers who had a usual place of residence elsewhere in Canada, at which they did not expect to be enumerated.

(iii) entire households displaced from their usual place of residence, (e.g., families living in a cottage for the summer months).

Group C — Persons not enumerated.

(i) citizens of another country attached to the legation, embassy, or other diplomatic body of that country.

(ii) citizens of another country who were on a temporary visit to Canada.

(iii) members of the armed forces of another country stationed in Canada, and members of their families who were of foreign nationality.

(iv) infants born after the census date.

Principes généraux du dénombrement

L'objet légal du recensement au Canada étant de déterminer la représentation parlementaire, la loi sur la statistique pourvoit à ce que le recensement soit effectué d'après la méthode de jure ou de droit, ce qui veut dire que chaque personne est recensée comme appartenant à la localité de son domicile ordinaire plutôt qu'à l'endroit où elle peut se trouver à la date du recensement. (Lors du recensement de 1951, l'heure précise du calcul était minuit, la nuit du 31 mai au 1er juin. Toute personne née avant et toute personne décédée après cette heure a été comptée parmi la population.) Les complications que supposent un recensement d'après la méthode de jure exigent des règles de travail précises qui doivent aider l'agent recenseur à déterminer quelles doivent être les personnes à recenser et où recenser chacune d'elles. Pour les besoins du recensement, la population entière a été répartie entre les trois groupes suivants:

Groupe A — Personnes recensées et faisant partie des membres du ménage.

(i) personnes dont le domicile ordinaire est dans le logement et qui demeurent à la maison (y compris les bébés nés avant minuit le 31 mai).

(ii) personnes dont le domicile ordinaire est dans le logement mais qui sont temporairement absentes en visite, en voyage d'affaires, à l'école ou à l'université, ou sont dans un camp militaire comme membre de la Réserve.

(iii) personnes dont le domicile ordinaire est dans le logement, mais qui ont été admises à l'hôpital pour une période de traitement de courte durée.

(iv) chambreurs qui couchent habituellement dans le logement (sauf les étudiants chambreurs qui ont un domicile ordinaire ailleurs).

(v) domestiques et autres employés qui couchent habituellement dans le logement.

(vi) personnes décédées qui vivaient à la date du recensement et dont le domicile ordinaire était dans le logement.

Groupe B — Personnes recensées avec le ménage mais n'en faisant pas partie. (Les documents de cette catégorie ont été attribués au ménage du domicile permanent de la personne au moyen d'une méthode de dépouillement en usage au bureau.)

(i) visiteurs dans le ménage (ou invités du ménage) qui ont un domicile ordinaire ailleurs au Canada, mais qui ne croient pas devoir y être recensés.

(ii) étudiants chambreurs qui ont un domicile ordinaire ailleurs au Canada, mais qui ne croient pas devoir y être recensés.

(iii) ménages entiers déplacés de leur domicile ordinaire (e.g., familles demeurant dans un chalet durant les mois d'été).

Groupe C — Personnes non recensées.

(i) citoyens d'un autre pays attachés à la légation, à l'ambassade ou à une autre représentation diplomatique de ce pays.

(ii) citoyens d'un autre pays en séjour temporaire au Canada.

(iii) membres des forces armées d'un autre pays postés au Canada et les membres de leurs familles qui sont de nationalité étrangère.

(iv) enfants nés après la date du recensement.

Enumeration of hospitals, institutions, etc.

The foregoing rules of de jure enumeration deal in the main with the enumeration of persons living in ordinary private dwellings, who comprise the bulk of the population. However, many persons live in what might be called dormitory or institutional dwellings or in seasonal dwellings, such as camps, etc. The method of enumerating these special types of dwellings is:

General hospitals and nurses' residences.— Staff members who slept regularly at the hospital (including nurses and nurses-in-training living in a nurses' residence) were enumerated at the hospital. The only patients enumerated at the hospital were (i) those who had no permanent homes elsewhere and (ii) those who were long term patients—that is, had been in the hospital six months or longer.

Sanatoria, mental hospitals, etc.— Large sanatoria, mental hospitals, and other institutions of this type were made separate enumeration sub-districts, and arrangements generally were made for the census of these places to be taken by one of the members of the staff of the institution. Persons in smaller institutions of this type were enumerated in the usual manner by the regular enumerators.

The superintendent or other staff members who slept regularly in the institution or in separate self-contained suites or houses provided on the premises were enumerated there. Since in institutions of this type, the patients generally remain for long periods of time, all patients were enumerated at the institution regardless of the duration of their stay.

Penal institutions.— As in the case of large sanatoria, persons in mental hospitals, etc., large penitentiaries were enumerated by one of the members of the staff. Resident staff members as well as all persons confined to the institution were enumerated there.

Boarding schools.— The rule for all students (except nurses-in-training) attending any type of school or university on June 1st is that they are enumerated at the homes of their parents unless they have definitely established residence elsewhere. Resident staff members in a boarding school were enumerated with the school household.

Diplomatic residences.— Ambassadors, envoys, soldiers and other citizens of another country living in Canada in an official capacity were not counted in the census. However, their homes were visited and residents of Canada living in the home such as a maid or gardener were enumerated.

Enumeration of hotels, camps, etc.

Transient accommodations.— A special procedure was inaugurated in the 1951 Census for the enumeration of persons in transient accommodation, i.e., those who had no usual place of residence other than the hotel, tourist camp, mission, etc., where they were located at the time of the census. This involved setting aside a special night—Wednesday, June 6th—for the enumeration of all such persons in the larger urban centres across Canada by specially trained enumerators.

Enumeration of the transient population located in hotels, tourist camps, missions, etc., in urban centres other than those covered by "T-Night" was conducted on Wednesday, June 6th, in the regular manner by the enumerator of the sub-district concerned. The following instructions were provided for the enumerators' guidance on encountering dwellings of this type.

Recensement des hôpitaux, institutions, etc.

Les règles ci-dessus mentionnées qui régissent le recensement par la méthode de jure traitent, dans l'ensemble, du dénombrement des personnes qui demeurent dans des logements privés ordinaires; celles-ci constituent le gros de la population. Plusieurs autres, cependant, habitent ce que l'on pourrait appeler des logements dans des maisons d'étudiants ou dans des institutions, ou encore des logements saisonniers tels que les camps, etc. La méthode employée dans le recensement de ces genres particuliers de logements est la suivante:

Hôpitaux généraux et maisons d'infirmières.— Les membres du personnel qui couchent régulièrement à l'hôpital (y compris les infirmières et les infirmières élèves qui demeurent dans les maisons d'infirmières) sont recensés à l'hôpital. Les seuls malades qui y sont recensés sont (i) ceux qui n'ont aucun domicile permanent ailleurs et (ii) les malades à long terme, c'est-à-dire ceux qui sont à l'hôpital depuis six mois ou plus.

Sanatoriums, hôpitaux pour maladies mentales, etc.— Les grands sanatoriums, les hôpitaux pour maladies mentales et autres institutions de ce genre ont été considérés comme des sous-districts de dénombrement distincts et des dispositions générales ont été prises pour qu'ils soient recensés par un membre du personnel de l'institution. Les personnes dans d'autres institutions de ce genre, mais plus petites, ont été recensées de la manière ordinaire par les agents recenseurs réguliers.

Le surintendant ou les autres membres du personnel qui couchent régulièrement dans l'institution ou dans des suites de pièces ou maisons séparées et indépendantes situées sur les terrains de l'institution furent recensés à ces endroits. Étant donné que, règle générale, les malades dans des institutions de ce genre y séjournent longtemps, tous ont été recensés à l'institution indépendamment de la durée du séjour.

Établissements pénitentiaires.— Comme dans le cas des grands sanatoriums et des personnes qui sont dans des institutions pour maladies mentales, etc., les grands pénitenciers ont été recensés par l'un des membres du personnel. Les membres du personnel à demeure de même que toutes les personnes détenues dans l'établissement ont été recensés sur place.

Pensionnats.— Règle générale, tous les étudiants (sauf les élèves infirmières qui fréquentaient une école ou une université quelconque le 1er juin) devaient être recensés à la maison de leurs parents à moins qu'ils eussent définitivement élu domicile ailleurs. Les membres du personnel d'un pensionnat qui demeurent dans la maison, ont été recensés avec le ménage qui forme celui-ci.

Résidences diplomatiques.— Les ambassadeurs, les envoyés, les militaires et autres citoyens d'un autre pays exerçant au Canada une fonction officielle ne figurent pas au recensement canadien. Toutefois, leurs maisons furent visitées et les résidents canadiens qui y vivaient, tels que les bonnes ou les jardiniers, furent recensés.

Recensement des hôtels, camps, etc.

Logements pour les personnes de passage.— Une méthode spéciale a été inaugurée lors du recensement de 1951 pour le dénombrement des personnes de passage, i.e., celles qui n'avaient d'autre domicile ordinaire qu'un hôtel, un camp de touriste, une mission, etc., et où elles se trouvaient au moment du recensement. Il a fallu, à cette fin, affecter une soirée spéciale,—le mercredi 6 juin,—au dénombrement de toutes ces personnes dans les grands centres urbains du Canada, dénombrement qui fut fait par des agents recenseurs formés spécialement.

Le recensement de la population de passage demeurant dans les hôtels, les camps de touristes, les asiles, etc., dans les centres urbains autres que ceux qui avaient été prévus pour le mercredi soir, 6 juin a été effectué le mercredi 6 juin de la façon régulière par les agents recenseurs du sous-district visé. Les instructions suivantes avaient été données aux agents recenseurs dans le cas où ils rencontreraient des logements de cette catégorie.

(a) Hotels — The following persons were enumerated in hotels as their usual place of residence:

(i) resident staff members and their families

(ii) guests whose usual residence was in the hotel

(iii) transients who had no place of residence elsewhere.

Transients in hotels who did not consider they would be enumerated at their usual place of residence were enumerated at the hotel but were counted with the population at their usual place of residence.

(b) Hostels and missions — Salvation Army hostels, missions, and other similar places were dealt with in much the same manner as hotels. That is, the enumeration was carried out on Wednesday, June 6th, and in each such place the resident population constituted one large household.

Camps (construction, logging, etc.) — As in the case of hotels, persons found in construction camps, lumber camps and other similar accommodations on June 1st were enumerated and included with the population of the camp if they had no usual place of residence elsewhere.

Military camps. — Military camps constituted special enumeration areas and persons found therein were enumerated by personnel of the Armed Forces. Persons in the Active Forces in Canada were included with the population at the camp unless they were permitted to sleep regularly outside the camp. Civilians who slept regularly in the camp were enumerated by the special enumerator and included in the camp population. Persons in the Active Forces overseas were enumerated by personnel of the Armed Forces but were counted with the population at their usual place of residence in Canada.

Summer cottages, tourist camps, etc. — Persons in summer accommodation were enumerated at the place where they were temporarily located unless they were certain they would be enumerated at their usual place of residence. However, they were counted with the population of the place where they were regularly domiciled. A cottage, cabin, motel, etc. was treated as a regular dwelling unit if the occupants had no other place of residence. In this case the occupants were counted with the population in the locality where they were found.

Enumeration of absent persons, temporary residents, etc.

Absent persons. — Enumerators were instructed to inquire whether any member of a household was temporarily absent. If so, the information concerning the absent member was to be obtained from one of the other members of the household. If no one in the household was capable of supplying the information for temporarily absent lodgers, boarders, etc., the enumerator left an Individual Form to be filled in by the absent member and collected by the enumerator at a later visit. The information on the Individual Form was transcribed to the regular population document which was then included with the other documents of the household.

"Closed" dwellings. — When an enumerator encountered a dwelling in which all members of the household were absent, he made inquiries of janitors and neighbours to determine if the occupants were merely out for the day or if they were temporarily residing elsewhere. If the occupants were absent for a short time only, he returned at a later date to complete the enumeration. If the occupants were temporarily residing elsewhere, the name and address of the household head and the number of usual occupants were entered in the enumerator's Visitation Record and the dwelling was designated as "closed". Information for these closed dwellings was obtained at a later date if the persons were not enumerated at their temporary place of residence.

(a) Hôtels — Les personnes suivantes ont été recensées dans les hôtels, qui étaient leur domicile ordinaire:

(i) membres du personnel à demeure et leurs familles

(ii) pensionnaires dont le domicile ordinaire est à l'hôtel

(iii) personnes de passage n'ayant pas de domicile ordinaire ailleurs.

Les personnes dans les hôtels qui ne croyaient pas devoir être recensées à leur domicile ordinaire ont été recensées à l'hôtel mais ont été comptées avec la population de l'endroit de leur domicile ordinaire.

(b) Pensions et asiles — Les pensions de l'Armée du Salut et autres endroits semblables ont été recensés de la même façon que les hôtels. Le dénombrement a été effectué le mercredi 6 juin et dans chacun de ces endroits les personnes résidentes constituaient un grand ménage.

Chantiers (de construction, d'abatage, etc.) — Comme dans le cas des hôtels, les personnes qui se trouvaient dans les chantiers de construction, d'abatage du bois et autres endroits semblables le 1er juin ont été recensées et incluses dans la population du chantier si elles n'avaient pas de domicile ordinaire ailleurs.

Camps militaires. — Les camps militaires constituaient des arrondissements de dénombrement spéciaux et les personnes qui s'y trouvaient ont été recensées par les membres des forces armées. Les personnes qui faisaient partie de l'armée active au Canada furent incorporées à la population du camp, sauf lorsqu'elles avaient la permission de coucher régulièrement en dehors du camp. Les civils qui couchaient régulièrement au camp ont été recensés par des agents spéciaux et incorporés à la population du camp. Les personnes qui faisaient partie de l'armée active outre-mer ont été recensées par les membres des forces armées mais comptées avec la population de l'endroit de leur domicile au Canada.

Chalets d'été, camps de touristes, etc. — Les personnes qui se trouvaient dans des habitations d'été ont été recensées à l'endroit où elles demeuraient temporairement si elles ne prévoyaient pas devoir l'être à leur domicile ordinaire. Elles ont, toutefois, été comptées avec la population de l'endroit de leur domicile ordinaire. Un chalet, une cabine, un motel, etc., ont été recensés comme une unité de logement ordinaire si les occupants n'avaient pas d'autre domicile. Dans ce cas, les occupants ont été comptés avec la population de l'endroit où ils se trouvaient.

Dénombrement des personnes absentes, résidents temporaires, etc.

Personnes absentes. — Les agents recenseurs avaient reçu instruction de demander si un membre du ménage n'était pas temporairement absent. Si tel était le cas, les renseignements relatifs à la personne absente étaient obtenus de l'un des autres membres du ménage. Si personne, dans le ménage, ne pouvait fournir les renseignements au nom d'un chambreur, d'un pensionnaire, etc. absents, l'agent recenseur laissait une formule individuelle qui devait être remplie par la personne absente et recueillie plus tard par l'agent recenseur. Les renseignements consignés sur la formule individuelle était transcrits sur le document-population régulier, celui-ci étant ensuite classé avec les autres documents relatifs au ménage.

Logements "fermés". — Lorsqu'un agent recenseur se trouvait en présence d'un logement où tous les membres du ménage étaient absents, il se renseignait auprès des concierges et des voisins afin de savoir si les occupants n'étaient absents que pour la journée où s'ils demeuraient temporairement ailleurs. Si les occupants n'étaient que momentanément absents, l'agent revenait plus tard en terminer le dénombrement. S'ils demeuraient temporairement ailleurs, l'agent recenseur inscrivait sur sa feuille de visites le nom et l'adresse du chef du ménage et le nombre ordinaire de membres de ce dernier et le logement était marqué "fermé". Les renseignements relatifs aux logements fermés étaient obtenus plus tard si les personnes n'avaient pas été recensées à leur domicile temporaire.

Temporary residents.— When an enumerator found a household in temporary residence in his sub-district, he enumerated it by using a special Temporary Resident Schedule for this purpose. This schedule differed from the regular population document in that the address recorded was the household's permanent address rather than where they were temporarily located and the questions referred to conditions at that permanent address. Additional space was provided to enter the name of the household head at the person's usual place of residence to facilitate the office transfer of these documents to the locality of usual residence. Individuals temporarily residing in a household away from their permanent homes were enumerated in the same manner.

Résidents temporaires.— Lorsqu'un agent recenseur rencontrait un ménage en résidence temporaire dans son sous-district, il le recensait, se servant à cette fin du questionnaire spécial pour les résidents temporaires. Ce questionnaire diffère du document-population régulier en ce que l'adresse inscrite est l'adresse permanente du ménage plutôt que leur adresse temporaire et les questions portent sur les conditions qui règnent à cette adresse permanente. Un espace avait été ménagé pour l'inscription du nom du chef du ménage au domicile permanent de la personne afin de faciliter le transfert, au bureau, de ces documents à l'endroit du domicile ordinaire. Les personnes demeurant temporairement dans un ménage autre que leur ménage permanent ont été recensées de la même manière.

Definitions of census terms

Electoral districts.— The legal raison d'être of the census is to determine representation in the House of Commons of the Parliament of Canada. Tables 4 and 5 of this volume present population totals for each federal electoral district. Table 5 gives detailed totals for all census subdivisions of the electoral districts. This table has been published as a separate report to facilitate redistribution by Parliament. The electoral districts in Tables 4 and 5 for all provinces except Newfoundland are as constituted under the Representation Act of 1947. In the case of Newfoundland they refer to the electoral districts established as a result of the Act of 1949 which approved the terms of union of Newfoundland and Canada.

Census divisions and subdivisions.— Since there are no fixed political divisions in the four western provinces and Newfoundland corresponding to the counties of eastern Canada, census divisions were established for the presentation of statistical data for permanent areas smaller than a province. These were designed to permit future subdivision, if necessitated by population increases, without destroying comparability of information collected at earlier censuses. Reference maps of counties and census divisions, as well as an outline of the various types of subdivisions in each province, are shown in Appendix A of this volume.

Metropolitan areas.— For census purposes, metropolitan areas have been established for groups of urban communities in Canada which are in close economic, geographic and social relationship. Maps showing the municipalities or parts thereof included in each of the census metropolitan areas are set forth in Appendix A.

Population totals are presented in Table 12(a) for certain other urban groups in which the population of the largest incorporated unit is over 25,000. In the above-mentioned table these areas have been designated as "other major urban areas". The component parts of these areas were established through a special study which considered the previously published population totals for these parts as well as other relevant information established by the 1951 Census. These areas possess some but not necessarily all of the characteristics of metropolitan areas although in most cases the communities are smaller in size. In the case of Sydney-Glace Bay and Sudbury, all of the surrounding urbanized and industrialized mining areas were included. Comparable figures from the 1941 Census for the "other major urban areas" are not shown in Table 12(a) as separate figures are not available for the majority of the fringe parts.

Census tracts.— To provide a means of comparing social and economic factors for small areas within an urban community, census tracts have been established for the following cities: Halifax, Saint John, Quebec, Montreal, Ottawa, Toronto, Windsor, Winnipeg, Regina, Saskatoon, Edmonton, Calgary, Victoria and Vancouver. Basic population, dwelling, house-

Définitions des termes de recensement

Districts électoraux.— La raison d'être légale du recensement est de déterminer la représentation à la Chambre des Communes du Parlement du Canada. Les tableaux 4 et 5 du présent volume donnent les chiffres de la population de chacun des districts électoraux fédéraux. Le tableau 5 donne les chiffres détaillés de toutes les subdivisions de recensement des districts électoraux. Ce tableau a été publié sous la forme d'un rapport distinct afin de faciliter le remaniement par le Parlement. Les districts électoraux dans les tableaux 4 et 5 pour toutes les provinces excepté Terre-Neuve sont tels qu'ils étaient constitués en vertu de la loi de 1947 sur la députation. Dans le cas de Terre-Neuve, ils sont les districts électoraux établis en vertu de la loi de 1949 approuvant les conditions de l'union de Terre-Neuve et du Canada.

Divisions et subdivisions du recensement.— Étant donné qu'il n'y a pas de divisions politiques dans les quatre provinces de l'Ouest ni à Terre-Neuve qui correspondent aux comtés de l'Est du Canada, des divisions de recensement furent établies afin de pouvoir présenter les données statistiques relatives à des régions permanentes plus petites qu'une province. Elles ont été délimitées de façon que, plus tard, en raison de l'augmentation de la population elles puissent être subdivisées sans que pour cela soit détruite la comparabilité des renseignements avec ceux des recensements antérieurs. On trouvera à l'Appendice A du présent volume des cartes de référence des comtés et des divisions de recensement, de même qu'une esquisse des genres divers de subdivisions dans chaque province.

Zones métropolitaines.— Pour les besoins du recensement, des zones métropolitaines ont été établies pour les groupes d'agglomérations urbaines du Canada qui sont en rapport étroit au point de vue économique, géographique et social. On trouvera à l'appendice A des cartes indiquant les municipalités ou leurs parties comprises dans chacune des zones métropolitaines de recensement.

Les chiffres de la population sont donnés dans le tableau 12(a) pour certains groupes urbains où la population de la plus grande subdivision constituée est de plus de 25,000. Dans ce tableau, ces régions sont appelées "autres régions urbaines importantes". Leurs parties constituantes ont été établies à la suite d'une étude spéciale des chiffres de la population publiés antérieurement de même que d'autres renseignements pertinents obtenus lors du recensement de 1951. Ces régions possèdent certaines des caractéristiques des zones métropolitaines mais non nécessairement toutes, bien que dans la plupart des cas, les agglomérations soient plus petites. Dans le cas de Sydney-Glace-Bay et Sudbury, toutes les régions minières urbanisées et industrialisées des environs ont été incluses. Le tableau 12(a) ne donne pas les chiffres comparatifs du recensement de 1941 à l'égard des "autres régions urbaines importantes" parce qu'il n'existe pas de chiffres distincts pour la majorité des secteurs périphériques.

Secteurs de recensement.— Afin de pouvoir établir une comparaison entre les caractéristiques sociales et économiques des petites régions situées à l'intérieur d'une collectivité urbaine, des secteurs de recensement ont été établis dans les cités suivantes: Halifax, Saint-Jean (N.-B.), Québec, Montréal, Ottawa, Toronto, Windsor, Winnipeg, Regina, Saskatoon, Edmonton, hold and family information as well as labour force data for these census tracts have been prepared in bulletin form and may be obtained on request from the Bureau. Population totals and additional textual material on the definitions, selection of areas, etc. are given in Appendix A. This appendix also includes index maps outlining the relative location of these tracts.

Rural and urban.— Prior to the 1951 Census, the population residing within the boundaries of incorporated cities, towns and villages, regardless of size, was classified as urban and the remainder as rural. In the 1951 Census the aggregate size of population rather than provincial legal status was the main criterion for the rural-urban definition. The urban population in 1951 includes all persons residing in cities, towns and villages of 1,000 and over, whether incorporated or unincorporated, as well as the population of all parts of census metropolitan areas. The 1951 rural-urban definition has the advantage of creating a uniform line of demarcation between the rural and urban population across Canada. This was not obtained formerly because of the varying laws of incorporation among provinces.

Farm population.— A number of tables in this volume classify the rural population by "farm" and "non-farm" residence. The "farm" population comprises all persons living on a farm in a rural area, regardless of their occupation. A farm, for census purposes, is a holding on which agricultural operations are carried out and which comprises

(i) three acres or more in size, or

(ii) from one to three acres in size with agricultural production in 1950 amounting to $250 or more.

Age.— The age enumerated was the person's exact age at his last birthday prior to the census date. Tables in this volume show the population by five-year age groups, with abbreviated broader age groupings used for the table by small geographical areas.

Marital status.— Each person enumerated was enumerated according to marital status, viz., single, married, widowed or divorced. Figures under "married" include all married persons whether living together or apart for any reason, unless a divorce had been obtained.

Years of schooling.— The total number of years of schooling of every person was obtained in the census. This included the total number of school years the person attended any kind of educational institution such as elementary school, secondary school, college or university. Kindergarten or nursery school did not count as a year of schooling. Private study and part-time attendance at classes counted for the number of years of formal schooling to which they were equivalent.

School attendance.— In addition to the question on years of schooling, a further inquiry was asked in the census to determine the number of persons who had some regular daytime attendance at any type of formal school or university since September, 1950, (i.e., in the school year preceding the census date).

Official language.— Every person in Canada was asked whether they could speak English, and whether they could speak French, the two official languages of Canada. Persons indicated in Tables 53 to 58 as speaking "English only" or "French only" may speak other languages.

Mother tongue.— A second question on language inquired the mother tongue of each individual. By "mother tongue" is meant the language the person first spoke in childhood and still understands. In the case of infants this refers to the language commonly spoken in the home.

Calgary, Victoria et Vancouver. Des renseignements fondamentaux sur la population, les logements, les ménages et les familles ont été dressés en bulletins qui peuvent être obtenus, sur demande, au Bureau. Les totaux de la population ainsi que des détails supplémentaires à l'égard des définitions, le choix des zones, etc. sont donnés à l'appendice A, qui contient également des cartes-index indiquant la situation relative de ces secteurs.

Population rurale et population urbaine.— Antérieurement au recensement de 1951, la population qui demeurait en deçà des limites des cités, villes et villages constitués, indépendamment de leur importance numérique, était classée urbaine et le reste, rurale. Au recensement de 1951, l'importance numérique globale de la population plutôt que le statut provincial a été le critérium principal dans la répartition de la population entre rurale et urbaine. La population urbaine en 1951 comprend toutes les personnes qui demeurent dans les cités, villes et villages de 1,000 et plus, constitués ou non, de même que la population de toutes les parties des zones métropolitaines de recensement. La définition de population rurale et de population urbaine de 1951 a l'avantage d'établir une ligne de démarcation uniforme entre la population rurale et la population urbaine à travers le Canada, ligne qu'il était impossible d'obtenir autrefois en raison de la différence entre les lois de constitution d'une province à l'autre.

Population agricole.— Dans un certain nombre de tableaux du présent volume, la population rurale est subdivisée en population rurale "agricole" et rurale "non agricole". La population "agricole" comprend toutes les personnes qui vivent dans des fermes situées dans des régions rurales, indépendamment de leur occupation. Pour les besoins du recensement, une ferme est une terre sur laquelle se font des travaux agricoles; elle doit être

(i) de trois ou plus, ou

(ii) d'une à trois acres et avoir donné en 1950 pour $250 ou plus de produits agricoles.

Âge.— L'âge inscrit était l'âge exact de la personne au dernier anniversaire antérieur à la date du recensement. Les tableaux du présent volume donnent la population par groupes quinquennaux d'âge, celle des petites régions géographiques étant répartie par groupes d'âge plus grands.

État matrimonial.— Chaque personne a été recensée selon son état matrimonial, soit: célibataire, marié, en veuvage ou divorcé. Les chiffres qui paraissent sous "marié" comprennent toutes les personnes mariées vivant ensemble ou, pour quelque raison, séparées, à moins qu'elles n'aient obtenu un divorce.

Années d'école.— On a obtenu au recensement le nombre total d'années durant lesquelles chaque personne a fréquenté l'école. Il s'agit du total des années où la personne a fréquenté une maison d'enseignement quelconque telle qu'une école élémentaire, une école secondaire, un collège ou une université. Le jardin d'enfance et la maternelle ne comptent pas comme une année d'école. Les études privées et la fréquentation à temps discontinu comptent pour le nombre d'années régulières auxquelles elles correspondent.

Fréquentation scolaire.— En plus de la question sur les années d'école, une autre a été posée, lors du recensement, afin de déterminer le nombre de personnes qui ont suivi, à un moment quelconque depuis septembre 1950 (i.e., durant l'année scolaire qui a précédé la date du recensement), les cours d'une école régulière de jour ou d'une université.

Langue officielle.— Chaque personne au Canada a été priée de dire si elle pouvait parler l'anglais, et si elle pouvait parler le français, les deux langues officielles du Canada. Les personnes figurant aux tableaux 53 à 58 comme parlant "l'anglais seulement" ou le "français seulement", pouvaient peut-être parler d'autres langues.

Langue maternelle.— Une seconde question au sujet de la langue a été posée à chaque personne afin de savoir quelle était sa langue maternelle. On entend par "langue maternelle" la première langue parlée par la personne dans son enfance et qu'elle comprend encore. Dans le cas des bébés, cela veut dire la langue ordinairement parlée à la maison.

Religion.— The specific religious denomination of which the person was either a member or to which he adhered or favoured was enumerated. Broad terms such as "Christian", "Catholic", "Protestant" and "Believer" were not accepted, and distinction was made between the Ukrainian (Greek) Catholic and Greek Orthodox Churches. Persons who stated they had no religion were entered as "none".

Birthplace.— For persons born in Canada the province or territory of birth was recorded while for persons born outside of Canada the country of birth as it was constituted at June 1, 1951, was entered. Distinction was made between persons born in Northern Ireland and the Republic of Ireland.

Citizenship.— Every person was required to report citizenship (nationality) stating the country of allegiance. Under the citizenship regulations in force at the date of the 1951 Census the following were considered as citizens of Canada, providing they had not otherwise lost their citizenship:

(a) Persons who were born in Canada

(b) Persons who were born in the United Kingdom or other British Commonwealth countries and had completed 5 years residence in Canada prior to Jan. 1, 1947, or had obtained a citizenship certificate. For persons born outside the British Commonwealth of Nations, naturalization papers are required in addition to 5 years residence prior to the date of the Citizenship Act or the acquisition of a citizenship certificate after that date.

(c) Any woman who married a Canadian citizen prior to Jan. 1, 1947, or obtained a citizenship certificate after that date.

(d) Any person whose father was a Canadian citizen at the time of birth and the person

(i) was under 21 years of age at the census date;

(ii) asserted Canadian citizenship before the twenty-second birthday.

In the case of persons owing allegiance to another country, the name of the country was recorded as—"United States", "China", "Finland", etc. Persons of "stateless" or "unknown" citizenship were enumerated accordingly.

Origin.— For census purposes a person's origin or cultural group was traced through the father. For example, if a person's father is German and mother Norwegian the origin was entered as German. Wherever applicable, the origin of a person was established by asking the language spoken by the person, or the paternal ancestor on first arrival to this continent. In the event that this question was not understood by the respondent, or the person's origin could not be established from the answer received, the enumerator asked a further question such as: "Is your origin in the male line English, Scottish, Ukrainian, Jewish, Norwegian, North American Indian, Negro, etc?". Persons who were not able to state their origin were recorded as "Unknown". Persons who reported themselves as "Canadian" or "American" were recorded as such. The number of persons reported as "Unknown", "Canadian" or "American" is included with the group "other and not stated" in the origin tables of this volume.

Special rules governed the enumeration of the origin inquiry in 1951 for persons of mixed Indian and white parentage, as follows:

(a) For those living on Indian reserves, the origin was recorded as "Native Indian".

Religion.— La dénomination religieuse particulière dont faisait partie une personne ou à laquelle elle adhérait ou qu'elle favorisait a été recensée. Des termes vagues tels que "chrétien", "catholique", "protestant" et "croyant" ne furent pas acceptés et une distinction a été établie entre l'Église (grecque) catholique ukrainienne et l'Église grecque orthodoxe. Les personnes qui ont déclaré n'avoir aucune religion ont été inscrites sous "aucune".

Lieu de naissance.— Pour les personnes nées au Canada, la province ou le territoire de naissance ont été inscrits tandis que pour les personnes nées en dehors du Canada, le pays de naissance tel qu'il était constitué le 1er juin 1951 a été inscrit. Une distinction a été établie entre personnes nées dans l'Irlande du Nord et celles qui sont nées dans la République d'Irlande.

Citoyenneté.— Chaque personne a été priée de déclarér sa citoyenneté (nationalité) ainsi que son pays d'allégeance. En vertu des règlements de la citoyenneté en vigueur à la date du recensement de 1951, les personnes énumérées ci-dessous ont été considérées citoyennes du Canada, si elles n'avaient pas autrement perdu leur citoyenneté:

a) Personnes nées au Canada.

b) Personnes nées au Royaume-Uni ou dans d'autres pays du Commonwealth britannique et qui avaient demeuré 5 ans au Canada avant le 1er janvier 1947, ou qui avaient obtenu un certificat de citoyenneté. Aux personnes nées en dehors du Commonwealth des nations britanniques, il faut, en plus des cinq années de résidence antérieurement à la date de la loi de la citoyenneté ou de l'acquisition d'un certificat de citoyenneté après cette date, des certificats de naturalisation.

c) Toute femme qui a épousé un citoyen canadien avant le 1er janvier 1947 ou obtenu un certificat de citoyenneté après cette date.

d) Toute personne dont le père était citoyen canadien lorsqu'elle est née et qui

(i) était agée de moins de 21 ans à la date du recensement;

(ii) avait affirmé sa citoyenneté canadienne avant son vingt-deuxième anniversaire.

Dans le cas des personnes devant allégeance à un autre pays, le nom du pays fut inscrit comme étant—"États-Unis", "Chine", "Finlande", etc. Les "apatrides" ou les personnes de citoyenneté "inconnue" ont été recensées conformément à leur déclaration.

Origine.— Aux fins du recensement, l'origine d'une personne ou le groupe culturel dont elle fait partie a été retracé à celle ou celui du père. Par exemple, si le père d'une personne est allemand et la mère norvégienne, l'origine a été inscrite comme étant allemande. Partout où la chose a été possible, l'origine d'une personne a été établie d'après la langue parlée par cette personne ou par l'ancêtre paternel lorsqu'il arriva sur le continent. Lorsque le répondant ne comprenait pas la question, ou que son origine ne pouvait être déterminée d'après sa réponse, l'agent recenseur devait poser une autre question: "Du côté paternel, votre origine est-elle anglaise, écossaise, ukrainienne, Juive, norvégienne, indienne de l'Amérique du Nord, nègre, etc.?" Les personnes qui ne purent déclarer leur origine furent inscrites sous "inconnue". Les personnes qui se sont déclarées "canadiennes" ou "américaines" ont été recensées comme telles. Le nombre de personnes déclarées comme étant d'origine "inconnue", "canadienne" ou "américaine" est compris dans le groupe "autre et non déclarée", dans les tableaux du présent volume qui porte sur les origines.

Des règles spéciales régissaient en 1951 l'emploi de la question relative à l'origine dans le cas des personnes d'origine mixte, race blanche et race indienne, qui devait être inscrite comme il suit:

a) Les personnes vivant dans les réserves indiennes étaient inscrites "indienne"

(b) For those not on reserves, the origin was determined through the father by the usual procedure.

This differs from the procedure of the 1941 Census where persons of mixed Indian and white parentage were shown as "Half-breed".

War service.— War service means enlistment for active service in the Armed Forces of any country for any period during World War I (1914-18) or World War II (1939-45). The Armed Forces includes the Army, the Navy, the Air Force, the Marines and the Nursing Corps.

Assignment of "not given" cases

Although the percentage of "not given" information under each subject of inquiry in the census is generally only a small fraction of one per cent, nevertheless it is necessary to deal in some manner with these cases. In all Canadian censuses previous to 1941, it was customary to record the "not given" cases as a separate item in each table. The same procedure held in the 1941 Census, except in the case of the age category. All cases of not stated ages were dealt with individually and a certain age was assigned to these persons by making use of all the relevant information on the census schedule.

This assignment in the case of "not given" information was extended in the 1946 and 1951 Censuses to include not only the category of age, but also other subjects where the number of "not given" cases was small, such as marital status, birthplace, citizenship, mother tongue, and years of schooling. For each category a plan was devised in order that the distribution of the assigned cases would, in the aggregate, closely approximate the probable distribution that would have resulted if the information had been recorded on the schedule. This meant that maximum use was made of other information on the schedule, as well as the laws of probability, in estimating a value for each "not given" case.

b) Pour les personnes ne vivant pas dans des réserves l'origine était déterminée d'après celle du père, de la manière ordinaire.

Ceci diffère de la méthode employée au recensement de 1941, où les personnes d'origine mixte, indienne et blanche avaient été inscrites "métis".

Service de guerre.— Le service de guerre signifie l'enrôlement pour service actif dans les forces armées d'un pays quelconque durant la première guerre mondiale (1914-1918) ou la seconde guerre mondiale (1939-1945). Les forces armées comprennent l'Armée, la Marine, l'Aviation, le corps d'infanterie de Marine et le corps des infirmiers.

Attribution des cas "non donné"

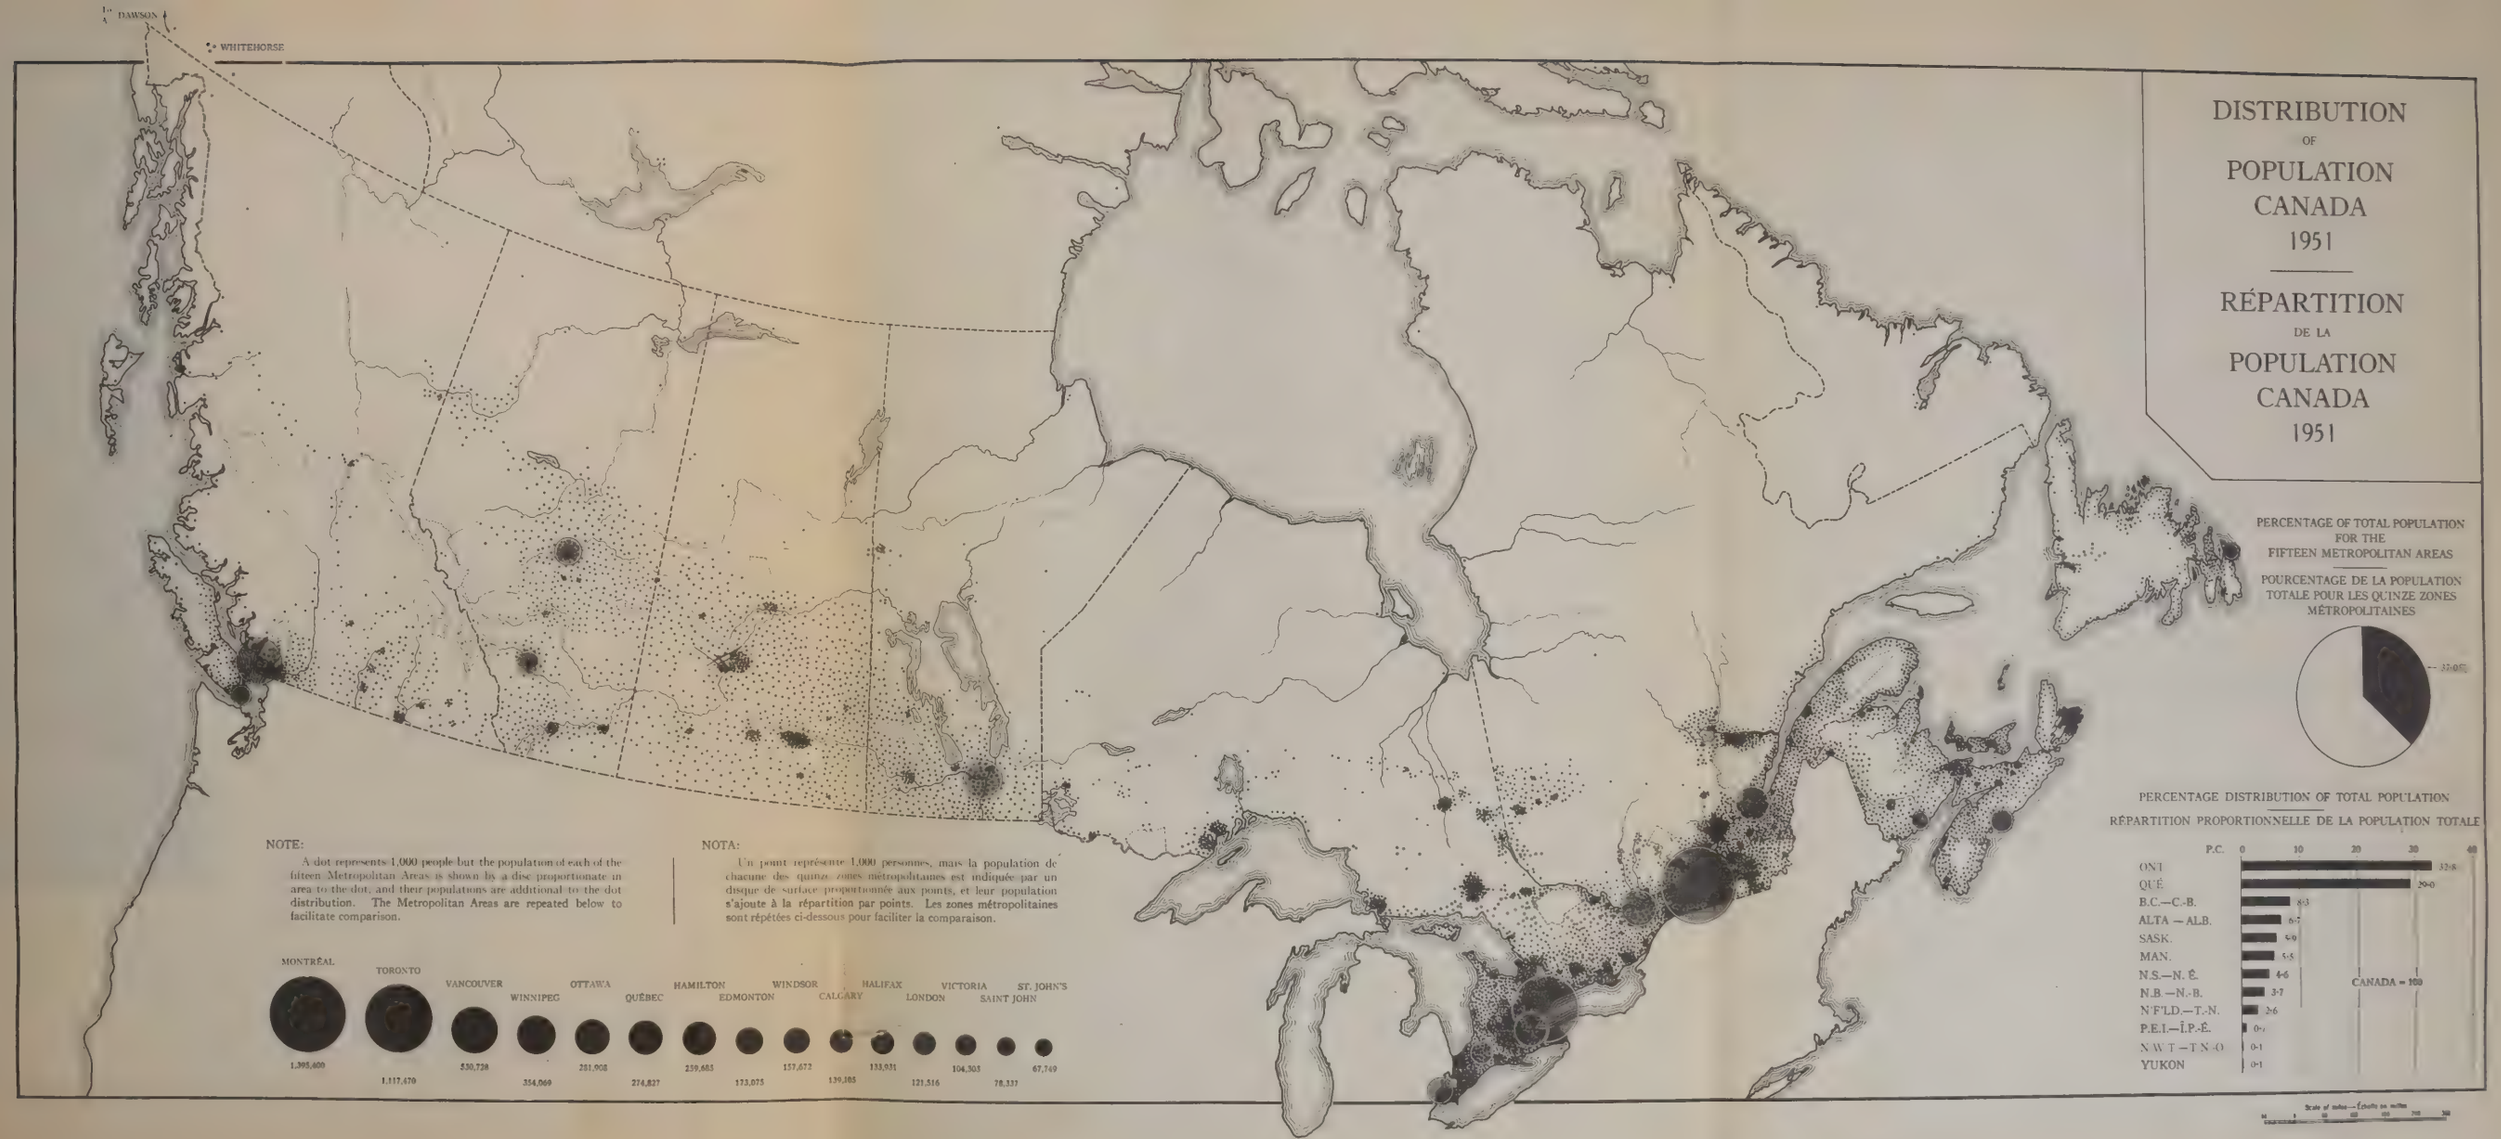
Bien que la proportion de renseignements "non donnés" sous chaque question du recensement ne représente en général qu'une petite fraction de un pour cent, il a fallu, néanmoins, en disposer. Dans tous les recensements canadiens antérieurs à celui de 1941, on inscrivait d'habitude les cas "non donné" comme article distinct dans chaque tableau. La même méthode a été suivie en 1941, sauf en ce qui concerne la catégorie d'âge. Tous les cas d'âge non donné ont été traités séparément et un certain âge a été attribué aux personnes, à l'aide de tous les renseignements pertinents du questionnaire du recensement.

Cette méthode concernant les renseignements "non donnés" a été appliquée aux recensements de 1946 et de 1951 de façon à embrasser non seulement la catégorie d'âge, mais aussi d'autres particularités, là où le nombre de cas "non donné" était petit, telles que l'état matrimonial, le lieu de naissance, la citoyenneté, la langue maternelle et les années d'école. Pour chacune des catégories, un plan a été dressé de façon que la répartition des cas d'attribution, soit, dans l'ensemble, assez rapprochée de la répartition probable qu'on aurait obtenue si les renseignements avaient été inscrits sur le questionnaire. Cela veut dire qu'on a fait plein usage des autres renseignements du questionnaire aussi bien que des lois de probabilité lorsqu'il s'est agi d'attribuer une valeur à chaque cas "non donné"

Errata

Enumeration errors in the 1951 Census have been discovered for the City of Chicoutimi, Que., and the Village of Rivière-du-Moulin, Que. These errors were revealed too late for revision of the population totals and distributions by various characteristics in the tables of the 1951 census volumes. The resulting changes in the population totals of these centres are as follows:

Chicoutimi, Que.— The total population of the City of Chicoutimi at the 1951 Census should be 23,111, rather than 23,216.



Rivière-du-Moulin, Que.— The total population of the Village of Rivière-du-Moulin at the 1951 Census should be 2,685, rather than 2,580.

Errata

On a constaté que des erreurs de dénombrement se sont glissées dans le recensement des populations de la cité de Chicoutimi (P.Q.) et du village de Rivière-du-Moulin (P.Q.) en 1951. Ces erreurs ont été découvertes trop tard pour que les chiffres de la population et les répartitions selon diverses caractéristiques puissent être rectifiés dans les tableaux des volumes du recensement de 1951. Les nouveaux chiffres de la population dans ces deux endroits sont donc les suivants:

Chicoutimi (P.Q.).— La population totale de la cité de Chicoutimi lors du recensement de 1951 était de 23,111 plutôt que de 23,216.

Rivière-du-Moulin (P.Q.).— La population totale du village de Rivière-du-Moulin lors du recensement de 1951 était de 2,685 plutôt que de 2,580.

Note. For footnotes referring to each county of Nova Scotia see Appendix C, page C-2.

The subdivisions of the counties of Nova Scotia other than the incorporated cities and towns are census subdivisions. Since for the most part the rural localities of Nova Scotia are not municipally organized, these census subdivisions have been established for the publication of census statistics.

Nota. Voir renvois relatifs à chaque comté de la Nouvelle-Écosse à l'appendice C, page C-2.

Les subdivisions des comtés de la Nouvelle-Écosse autres que les cités et villes constituées sont des subdivisions de recensement. Étant donné que la plupart des localités rurales de la Nouvelle-Écosse ne sont pas organisées au point de vue municipal, ces subdivisions de recensement ont été établies pour les fins de la publication des statistiques du recensement.

Note. For footnotes referring to each county of Quebec see Appendix C, page C-2, and following pages. In a few instances the counties of the province of Quebec, as they appear in census volumes, have not the same boundaries as the municipal counties. Each subdivision or part of subdivision located in a different municipal county is indicated on page 6—37. The subdivisions of each county other than the incorporated cities, towns and villages are parish and township municipalities and others without designation.

Nota. Renvois relatifs à chaque comté du Québec à l'appendice C, page C-2 et suivantes. Dans certains cas, les comtés de la province de Québec, tels qu'ils paraissent dans les volumes du recensement n'ont pas les mêmes limites que les comtés municipaux. Chaque subdivision ou partie de subdivision située dans un comté municipal différent est indiquée à la page 6—37. Les subdivisions de chaque comté autres que les cités, villes et villages constitués sont des municipalités de paroisse et de canton, et autres sans désignation.

* The population of Northwest River Arm and Rigolet on Hamilton Inlet was deducted from Quebec, as these parts were awarded to Newfoundland by decision of the Judicial Committee of the Privy Council March 1, 1927. — La population de Northwest-River-Arm et Rigolet sur Hamilton à été soustraite de Québec, parce que ces parties, en vertu d'une décision du Comité judiciaire du Conseil privé, ont été attribuées à Terre-Neuve le 1er mars 1927.

NOTE

The divisions of the province of Quebec are the municipal counties generally, but in a certain number of counties changes in boundaries have been made in fairly recent years, and these have not been followed in every case (the reason being that it would have been impossible to make comparisons with previous censuses). The following departures from the boundaries of municipal counties have thus been necessitated:

NOTA

Dans le Québec ce sont généralement les comtés municipaux qui servent de divisions. Mais, ces dernières années, les limites de certains comtés ont été modifiées. Toutefois, il n'a pas toujours été tenu compte de ces changements, car la comparaison avec les recensements antérieurs serait alors devenue impossible. Voici les cas où il a fallu oublier les limites des comtés municipaux:

Note. For footnotes referring to each census division of British Columbia see Appendix C, page C-24, and following pages. Owing to the limited and indefinite descriptions of local areas of British Columbia for census years prior to 1921 it is not possible to show the population for the subdivisions set up in 1931 beyond 1921. For an outline of these divisions and subdivisions see map at Appendix A. A statement at page 6-88 gives the population of British Columbia according to the ten census divisions from 1871 to 1951.

Nota. Renvois relatifs à chaque division de recensement de la Colombie-Britannique, appendice C, page C-24 et suivantes. A cause des descriptions limitées et indéfinies des régions locales de la Colombie-Britannique pour les années de recensement antérieures à 1921, il est impossible de donner la population des subdivisions établies en 1931 au delà de 1921. Voir la délimitation de ces divisions et subdivisions sur la carte de l'appendice "A". Un exposé, à la page 6-88, indique la population de la Colombie-Britannique selon les dix divisions de recensement de 1871 à 1951.

Note. For footnotes referring to each census division of Newfoundland see Appendix C, pages C-25 and C-26. In the case of Newfoundland, which became a province of Canada in 1949, decennial census figures by census divisions and subdivisions are not available for the period 1871-1941. Since there are no counties in Newfoundland, census divisions similar to those established in the western provinces of Canada were set up, prior to the 1951 Census, for the publication of Newfoundland census statistics. Figures from the 1945 Census taken by the Government of Newfoundland are shown in this table according to the new census divisions, but in some cases, these are estimated figures due to differences in boundaries used in the two censuses.

Nota. Renvois relatifs à chaque division de recensement de Terre-Neuve, appendice C, pages C-25 et C-26. Dans le cas de Terre-Neuve, devenue province du Canada en 1949, les chiffres du recensement décennal par division et subdivision de recensement ne sont pas disponibles pour la période de 1871-1941. Comme il n'y a pas de comtés à Terre-Neuve, des divisions de recensement semblables à celles qui ont été établies pour les provinces de l'Ouest du Canada y ont été créées avant le recensement de 1951 en vue de la publication des statistiques de recensement de cette province. Ce tableau donne les chiffres du recensement de 1945 effectué par le gouvernement de Terre-Neuve, selon les nouvelles divisions de recensement. Dans certains cas, cependant, ces chiffres sont estimatifs en raison de la différence entre les limites employées dans les deux recensements.

Note. Population figures for any given year are based on the areas of the cities, towns and villages as incorporated at that date. In many cases, therefore, these would not correspond with the 1951 areas due to later annexations, etc. — Nota. Les chiffres de la population, pour une année quelconque, reposent sur les superficies des cités, villes et villages constitués à cette date. En conséquence, ils ne correspondront pas, dans plusieurs cas, aux superficies de 1951, en raison des annexions, etc., effectuées dans la suite.
